

Award Winning Author Visits Our School

Crystal Ball O'Connor, author of the highly acclaimed children's books Jake and the Migration of the Monarch, Katherine's Quilt - Made for Dreaming, and Sing With Me Brennan - Our Carolina Moon, will visit our school, present her books and perform a fantastic program with drama, music, and writing instruction.

"Dr. O'Connor provides one of the most outstanding programs I have ever seen! She brings the entire package with music, costumes, storytelling, and interaction with students and staff." Joan Beth Page, Superintendent, Dillon

"What stunning books. These stories weave literature, the arts, science, nature, and social studies together in these heart warming and fascinating picture books. These books are real South Carolina treasures! Already library favorites!" Sally Nuss, Media Specialist, Taylor's Elementary

"These educational and loving stories are about what matters most in life: home and family. The stories and memorable pictures will bring joy to the oldest and youngest of readers." Lyn Riddle, Editor, The Journal
